Mrs. Emig Entertained.
Mrs. Emig, the charming Y. W. C. A. secretary at M. S. C. W., was delightfully entertained last Thursday evening at dinner, by the Sophomore Class at M. S. C. W., this being the occasion of her birthday anniversary. The table was beautifully decorated with pink and green tulle. In the center of the table was a large cut glass vase filled with spring flowers. The place cards were dainty, hand-painted, chubby little sunbonnet girls, especially made for the occasion by Miss Margaret Brady. An elaborate plate luncheon, followed by a sweet course, was served.

Mrs. Emig was also the guest of honor at a lovely little dinner party given last Friday evening by Miss Culbertson.

Ladies' Reading Circle.
The Ladies' Reading Circle met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. L. A. Vaughn at her pleasant home on College Street. In the absence of Mrs. B. L. Owen, Mrs. Claude Ayers acted as leader. The program, which was a musical one, proved to be most interesting and enjoyable. Mrs. Vaughn and Mrs. Marshall gave delightful papers on Verdi's "Rigoletto" and Donizetti's "Lucia," followed by several numbers from the operas on the Victrola, which were thoroughly enjoyed. Besides a splendid number of club members there were three additional guests present: Miss Hartford, Mrs. Ruth R. White, and Mrs. Middleton Wootton.

Mid-Week Bridge Club.
Mrs. Lonnie L. Locke will be hostess to the members of the Mid-Week Bridge Club, Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, at her home on South Fifth Street.

Mr. Edward Lee Hopper, of Augusta, Ga., arrived in the city last Monday and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jamison, on North Third Avenue.

Old Ladies' Home.

The following is taken from the Jackson (Miss.) Daily and will be of interest to many Columbians who are interested in the Old Ladies' Home in Jackson. The Old Ladies' Home Auxiliary in Columbus is a live, wide-awake organization with Mrs. E. R. Kirksey as president and Mrs. H. F. Simrall, secretary.

"George Washington's birthday celebrations brought many pleasant surprises—just as it does each year—and the dear ones in the Old Ladies' Home were thus made very happy on Friday afternoon when the ladies of Circle A, First Baptist Church, with Mrs. J. G. Deupree as the beloved and most efficient leader made a visit to this splendid institution.

"There was an informal program in which Miss Mabel Martin gave several delightful readings and the ladies joined in singing familiar airs in patriotic inspiration. Both vocal and instrumental music added to the enjoyment, and then there were candies, cakes and other tempting dainties in the red, white, and blue. "The hostesses and guests were alike happy and the impression will be a lasting one among these "Mothers in Israel" who are so dear to all who visit the Old Ladies' Home either in person or through tender thoughtfulness in sending gifts."

Home Auxiliary.

There will be an important meeting of the Old Ladies' Home Auxiliary next Monday afternoon, March 13th, at 3:30 o'clock, at the Woman's Club. All members are urged to be present as business of importance will be transacted, and future plans are to be discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn, of Macon, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Flynn.

Mr. Frank Armstrong left Sunday for Tuscaloosa, where he will spend several days.

Misses Cornelia Foster and Elizabeth Smith, who were the attractive guests of Mrs. Martha Searcy Tweedy for the week-end, have returned to their home in Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stillman, Mrs. E. H. Maddox and Miss Aline Maddox motored over from Starkville, Monday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Steene.

Mesdames Cunningham, Miland and Hamrick motored over from Brooksville, Monday, to do some shopping in the city.

Mr. W. H. Carter spent Monday and Tuesday in Birmingham on business.

Mr. Ernest White, of Decatur, Ill., who has been the guest of Major Cook III, expects to return home the last of the week.

Mr. Hugh Ezelle, who spent the past three weeks in Sumerville, Fla., the guest of his uncle, Mr. D. L. Belton, has returned home.

The many friends of Miss Lena Vaughan will be glad to know that she is improving rapidly at the Columbus Hospital, where she has been suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Mrs. Thomas H. Lipscomb left Monday to attend the North Mississippi Conference at Water Valley. Mrs. Lipscomb is a delegate from the Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church.

Miss Selma Thornley left Tuesday to attend the Missionary Conference at Water Valley. Miss Thornley represents the Young Woman's Auxiliary of Central Methodist Church.

Mrs. W. R. Walton, who has been sick for several weeks, suffering from la grippe, is now convalescent.

Mr. Fred Propst, who is attending the University of Alabama, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Propst.

Miss Dorothy Wilkinson is spending the week-end with Miss Isobel Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Early Ewing and little son, who were guests of Major and Mrs. Battle Bell, left this week for Aberdeen where they will be the guests of relatives for several days. Mrs. Ewing and little son will return to Columbus for a short visit before returning to their home in Scott.

Mr. D. W. Locke, of A. & M., was a week-end visitor in the city.

Mrs. Sarah Sheffield and Miss Ella Sherrod will be hostesses to the Ladies' Reading Circle on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at their residence on South Third Avenue.

Mrs. Ernest Locke spent the week-end in Starkville, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bell.

Messrs. Gustine Sanders and Sin Catchins, of A. & M., were week-end visitors in Columbus.

Mrs. J. W. Cox and little son returned Saturday from Union Springs, Ala., where they were guests of Mrs. Cox's sister, Mrs. Wood, for a fortnight. While there Mrs. Cox was the honoree of many delightful social affairs.

Saturday Bridge Club.
Mrs. William Burris will be hostess to the Saturday Bridge Club, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at her home on South Second Street.

Master Willis Pope, the bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Pope, has many friends in the city who will be glad to know that he is convalescent after a week's illness.

Mrs. Charles Johnson returned to her home in Greenville, Tuesday, after a delightful visit to her sister, Mrs. Mullin Knox.

Messrs. Wallace Calmes, Alva Tarks and Russell Cook, of Brooksville, were recent visitors in the city.

McBEE DOTS

Mrs. Eula Hill Keating, one of our teachers, was too sick to attend the Reading Circle at Ethelville on Saturday. We hope she will be well again soon.

Mr. W. D. Bishop, of near Columbus, was transacting business in this community Friday.

Mrs. Bettie Joyner visited her daughter, Mrs. Irene Redus on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Sam Wells called on Dr. G. E. Spruell, of the Liberty section on Wednesday.

The young people of this neighborhood enjoyed a nice little singing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herron, on Sunday night, Feb. 28th.

We hear of great things for our church at Tabernacle this summer. The preachers of this district are planning to have a Preachers' Conference on the camp ground at this place, beginning July 10th and lasting till the 17th. We shall certainly try to give them a royal welcome, and hope that our community will be greatly benefited by having these good men and their families in our midst for these few days.

Mr. M. W. Lawrence attended the Mason Lodge meeting on last Saturday at Ethelville. He was accompanied by Mrs. Florence Shelton, who attended the Teacher's Reading Circle at that place. The good ladies of Ethelville served a delightful lunch to the teachers on this occasion, which was appreciated and enjoyed by every one present.

The name of the play which the teachers and pupils are getting up is "Home Ties." We do not know exactly when this play will be given, but will be some time in March. We will tell as soon as the time is decided on, and hope to have a large crowd as it promises to be something interesting.

Mrs. Eunice Chatham visited in the home of her son, Mr. Willette Lawrence on Sunday.

Since starting this letter we have learned that Miss Florence Randall and little niece, Ruby Spruell, are both confined to their bed. We hope for them a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Willette Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. Brice Redus motored to Columbus on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. David Lawrence and family attended church at Andrew Chapel on Sunday morning. Brother Hartsfield, the pastor of that church preached a very interesting sermon on "The Life Eternal." We think that Bro. Hartsfield is one of the very best preachers we have in our conference and it is always a pleasure to hear him preach.

TERM MARRIAGES

Term marriages are now being urged in certain highly polished circles. The suggestion is made that ten years be the outside limit. The people who advocate term marriages ten years would indeed seem rather lengthy. Three weeks could be more like it. But the suggestion is made with all blitheness that matrimonial unions have a term—like the Presidency. If the ticket seemed to be a good one there would be a second term. It might be possible to build up a machine to continue indefinitely, but there would be fixed periods at which a halt might be called. This sounds like Greenwich Village stuff, but there are brainy women writers who are ready to advocate it. Possibly the theory is that a short term is better than no term at all. But the suggestion will not make much of a hit in church circles. What some folks want is a Woman's Exchange.

DOWDLE NEWS

Quite an interesting play entitled "The Night Riders," was put on in Caledonia High School auditorium last Friday night by the Rocky Bluff school. It consisted of four acts and about 20 characters. There was a large attendance and everybody seemed to enjoy it very much. A nice sum was collected which we suppose will go for the benefit of the school.

Quite a number of young and old folks enjoyed a nice singing given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Dodson. We appreciate good singings as it seems to draw the people together socially. It, too, makes many a sad heart happy by having these reliable song services in our homes. We thank you good people and please remember us when the time comes for another.

Mr. Herschell Dodson attended the singing at New Salem last Sunday night.

Mr. Roy Alexander and Mr. Blanchard Stewart were callers in this community Sunday night. Don't know what the attraction was.

Miss Louise Dodson were one among the ones who attended the singing at Mr. Willie Dodson's last Sunday night.

Mr. Gilbert Nickles was the guest of his friend, Mr. Turner Farley last Saturday afternoon.

We have heard it said that the sun never sets on Columbus Dispatch readers.

Now is the time, Mr. Farmer, to prune your fruit trees. The earlier the pruning, the better the fruit. Notice, too, the insects. They can be gotten rid of easily by careful spraying. An abundance of luscious fruit is a fine thing to have around the place.

Miss Louelle Dodson has returned to Piney Grove to resume her school duties, after spending two weeks with home folks in the Flat Woods section.

Mr. James A. Dale, of Caledonia, passed through our vicinity, Friday, on his way to the Queen City on important business.

Mr. Claude Caine and Professor William Wells were recent visitors in Columbus.

Miss Ruby Andrews, of Woodlawn, was a recent guest of Miss Florence Caine.

Mr. Bradley Cole spent Sunday at the home of Professor William Wells and family.

DOVIE.

REFORM

Health is very good at this writing. We are glad to learn Mr. and Mrs. Osker Jones' baby is doing fine, after being sick several days.

Mr. Walter Jones was a business man over to Vernon Friday.

Mr. B. G. Taggart was the guest of Mr. Bob Glasgow, Friday morning, a while.

Mr. Grady Wheeler was the guest of Mr. Clyde Porter Wednesday.

Mr. Grady Wheeler, Mr. Clyde Porter and Mr. Bennie Taggart thrashed a nice lot of velvet beans for seed Wednesday. I think it's a good idea to plant something that the boll weevil can't eat, for they can't eat them and the good old cows sure can eat a lot of them.

Mr. Jim Glasgow and his brother, Mr. Lonzo Glasgow, were business men up to Fayette, on last Saturday.

Mr. B. G. Taggart taken dinner with Mr. Clyde Porter Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Limon Lawrence spent Monday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Mattox.

Mr. Harse Lawrence was the guest of Mr. B. G. Taggart, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Ellick Loftis made a business trip to Fayette last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Osker Jones spent last Friday with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Deese.

Mr. George Loftis spent Friday with his father who lives near Mt. Zion Church.

Mr. Bennie Taggart was a business visitor to Fayette, Ala., last Saturday.

We have been having some rough weather. Makes us feel like winter is not over yet. The weather had been so warm the past week or two, people were planning to go right on with their plowing. Farmers seem to be interested in making a crop of cotton this year. Sure hope the boll weevil have frozen this time. Seems like cotton is about the only thing people can grow to make money out of, and the price is low, too, for dry goods to be so high.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry Pennington, of near Columbus, spent last Wednesday night with her sister of this community, Mr. and Mrs. Osker Jones.

Mrs. Annie Loftis spent the day Thursday with Mrs. Etta Taggart.

Mrs. Laura Jane Porter spent a while Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Etta Taggart.

Mr. and Mrs. Osker Jones spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Edd Johnson.

Mrs. Amor Loftis spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Bob Glasgow.

Mrs. Ivera McGee spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Lawrence.

Master Blanton Taggart spent Thursday night with little Master Paul Taggart.

Was greatly surprised when we read in the People's Paper of Mr. Tom Smith and Miss Hattie Williams being married. Wish them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Mary Jane Smith has been spending the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Addie Grant, who is on the sick list. Hope she will soon be restored to her health soon.

Miss Flora Mae Johnson, the charming daughter of Mr. Hays Johnson has been spending the week with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones of this community.

The Spring Hill school closed last Thursday night with a nice contest. Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Porter attended the concert. All reports a nice time.

DAISY.

A GARDENER COMPLAINS

"Yes," sighed Jags to his friend. "I had the prettiest little garden that you ever did see." "And how is it looking now?" asked the friend.

"My neighbor's chickens scratched it up." "Did you do anything?" asked his friend. "I did," was Jags's sinister reply. "I got a big cat that soon made mince meat of his chickens."

"Then what did he do?" "He bought a bulldog and the brute killed my cat." "But you weren't beaten?" "No. I borrowed a wolf from a animal tamer I knew and the wolf put an end to his bulldog."

"Well, what happened then?" "I heard he was about to buy a tiger to kill my wolf, and as I could not afford to purchase an elephant to kill the tiger I gave up all hope of ever getting my garden to look nice again."

PURE MILK

I will deliver fresh sweet milk from Tuberculosis Tested cows at ten cents per quart.

R. G. CLARKE, Phone 772.

This is to certify that I have tested for Tuberculosis dairy herd owned by Mr. R. G. Clarke and find them free from disease and handled in a sanitary manner, he uses a sanitary bucket and milks through a strainer, reducing the amount of dirt that unavoidably gets in an open bucket. Thirty per cent of the tuberculosis in children in the North and East, is contracted from milk. Don't you think enough of your children to give them pure milk, when it can be had at same price, as from untested cows.
